

Linda Jenkins is a nonprofit governance and leadership consultant with over 33 years of professional experience. She has owned her own company - Jenkins Consulting Group (JCG) - for eleven years. JCG services strengthen nonprofit organizational effectiveness through strategic planning, board assessment and development, fundraising counsel, leadership training, and meeting facilitation. In 2012, Linda boosted her board consulting expertise by becoming one of the first BoardSource Certified Governance Trainers®. With Linda's management and expertise, JCG has successfully completed 59 projects for 44 organizations in Oklahoma and Texas.

Before establishing JCG in 2007, Linda honed her professional skills through positions with the City of Long Beach, the City of Tulsa and the Tulsa Area United Way. Linda holds degrees from Princeton University and the University of Texas at Austin.

Linda is a graduate of Leadership Tulsa and LEAD North (formerly North Tulsa Development Council). Currently, Linda is serving as Past President of the Association for Talent Development (ATD) Tulsa Chapter and Vice Chair of the City of Tulsa's Sales Tax Overview Committee. Previously, she served on the board of directors for YWCA WomenShelter (Long Beach, CA), Youth Services of Tulsa, and Friends of the Tulsa City-County Libraries.

When she's not working, she sharpens her understanding of team dynamics and effective coaching by watching women's NCAA and WNBA basketball games.
