

ABOUT US

Jenkins Consulting Group (JCG) services strengthen nonprofit organizations. Core services include board development, strategic planning, program assessment, and unconscious bias training. It provides services through one-on-one and group consultation, online surveys, workshops, and retreats. JCG services are tailored to fit client needs for practical strategic solutions.

Linda Jenkins, a nonprofit governance and leadership consultant owns JCG. She has over 34 years of professional experience. Through Linda's leadership and expertise, JCG has successfully completed 62 projects for 45 organizations in Oklahoma and Texas.

In 2012, Linda boosted her board consulting expertise by becoming one of the first BoardSource Certified Governance Trainers®.

Driven by her passion to help nonprofit leaders create inclusive workplaces, she became certified to facilitate Managing Unconscious Bias in the Workplace workshops through the Cultural Intelligence Center in August 2019.

Before establishing JCG in 2007, Linda honed her professional skills through professional and leadership positions with the City of Long Beach, the City of Tulsa and the Tulsa Area United Way. Linda holds degrees from Princeton University and the University of Texas at Austin.

Linda is a graduate of Leadership Tulsa (1999) and North Tulsa Development Council (2011). Currently, Linda is serving as Vice President of Finance for the Association for Talent Development (ATD) Tulsa Chapter and Vice Chair of the City of Tulsa's Sales Tax Overview Committee.

WHY US

"Linda's exercises and expertise aided our board in accomplishing more in eight hours than we would have been able to do on our own in a week of meetings.... We have used facilitators in the past but none of them can compare to Linda in quality and energy nor with such ease keep a board like ours on track to 'get it done'"

— Dave Remine, President
Mensa Foundation (June 2015)
