Executive Bio for Linda Jenkins

Linda Jenkins provides organization leaders with consultation, resources, and training. Her services enhance their abilities to govern and manage ethically, effectively, and inclusively. Her services provide leaders with practical strategic approaches to achieving their missions.

Her customized services include strategic planning, board assessment and development, and unconscious bias training. She provides her services virtually and in-person through one-on-one and group consultation, online surveys, workshops, and meeting and retreat facilitation. She has owned her own company – Jenkins Consulting Group (JCG) – for seventeen years. JCG has successfully completed 90 projects for 68 organizations.

In 2012, Linda became one of the first BoardSource Certified Governance Consultants®. She became certified to facilitate managing unconscious bias workshops in 2019. Her services encompass current trends in nonprofit governance and evidence-based practices for disrupting unconscious bias and fostering inclusive workplaces.

Before establishing JCG in 2007, Linda honed her professional skills through positions with the City of Long Beach, the City of Tulsa, and the Tulsa Area United Way. Linda holds degrees from Princeton University and the LBJ School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas at Austin.

Since 2017, Linda has served as a District 1 Representative on the City of Tulsa’s Sales Tax Overview Committee. Previously, she served on the governing boards for YWCA WomenShelter (Long Beach, CA), Youth Services of Tulsa, Friends of the Tulsa City-County Libraries, and Association for Talent Development (ATD) – Tulsa Chapter.

Linda is an avid women's basketball fan. She loves to watch and attend NCAA and WNBA games. She has traveled to twelve Women’s Final Four championships.
