

Short
Executive Bio for Linda Jenkins

Linda Jenkins provides organization leaders with consultation, resources, and training that enhance their abilities to govern and manage ethically, effectively, and inclusively. Linda has owned her own company – Jenkins Consulting Group (JCG) – for eighteen years. Through JCG, she has successfully completed 102 projects for 81 organizations.

Her customized services include strategic planning, board assessment and development, and unconscious bias training. She provides her services virtually and in-person. Her services encompass current trends in nonprofit governance and evidence-based practices for disrupting unconscious bias and fostering inclusive workplaces.

In 2012, Linda became one of the first BoardSource Certified Governance Consultants®. She became certified to facilitate managing unconscious bias workshops in 2019. In 2023, she earned the Association for Talent Development (ATD) – Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) in Talent Development Certificate.

Before establishing JCG in 2007, Linda honed her professional skills through positions with the City of Long Beach, the City of Tulsa, and the Tulsa Area United Way. Linda holds degrees from Princeton University and the LBJ School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas at Austin.

Since 2017, Linda has served as a District 1 Representative on the City of Tulsa’s Sales Tax Overview Committee (STOC). She is currently serving her fifth one-year term as Vice Chair of the STOC. As a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. - Tulsa Alumnae Chapter, she currently serves as Co-chair of the Social Action Committee. Previously, she served on the governing boards for YWCA WomenShelter (Long Beach, CA), Youth Services of Tulsa, Friends of the Tulsa City-County Libraries, and Association for Talent Development (ATD) – Tulsa Chapter.

Linda is an avid women's basketball fan. She loves to watch and attend NCAA and WNBA games. She has traveled to thirteen Women’s Final Four championships.
